"Compelling prescriptions from an economist unusually able to speak with authority because unlike most of his peers, Bootle spotted that the boom was unsustainable." Robert Peston, BBC Business Editor and author of Who Runs Britain? "This book will stand out in the explosion of financial crisis literature. Roger Bootle is one of the top, practical economists in the financial world but he is not afraid to tackle the bigger, deeper questions around the future of capitalism, the role of markets and government." Vince Cable, MP, and author of The Storm: The World Economic Crisis and What it Means "R.
